A FEW NOTES TO BUTTERNUT AND BLUE CUSTOMERS:

1. I am continuing my research in order to write a regimental history of the 14th Brooklyn. I actually have the introduction written and Chapter One is nearly finished. The book will cover the exploits of the regiment during and after the war. Do you know the whereabouts of the diaries of John Fisher, Andrew Ackley, John Vliet, or Alfred Cranston [1861-1863]? If you have any material on that regiment you would be willing to share, I would be extremely grateful. I am willing to pay copying & shipping costs.

2. If you plan to charge your purchase, please be aware that we now need the security code on the back of your credit card & your billing zip code.

3. Thanks to the support of many of you, we were able to send a generous check to the Civil War Trust in support of the preservation of the Gaines' Mills Battlefield.

4. The toy soldier section of our website has been updated. We are now current on most of our Britains products and Collectors Showcase items. We hope to get Jenkins figures updated soon!

5. It is with much sadness that I report the loss of two Civil War bookmen. In the fall, Blake Magner passed away. He was the proprietor of C.W. Historicals and the long-time book review editor for Civil War News. And just before Christmas, the Civil War community lost Bob Lurate, a passionate bookman and true Southern gentleman. There were few dealers who knew as much about CW books, and over the years he had for sale some of the rarest titles you could imagine. Both men will be missed!
